Tuesday evening rehearsals are held in the Orchestra Rehearsal Room. To get there you must enter through the Main Entrance or South Entrance. If you entered through the school's Main Entrance go straight ahead through double doors until you can turn right onto a wide hallway. At that point begin to look up and you will eventually see signs for the school's performance wing. Turn right into the first such door you see, and you will easily find the Orchestra Rehearsal Room. (If you enter through the "South Entrance" simply go straight down the hallway until you see the signs for the school's performance wing, as above.)

Dress rehearsals and performance often take place in the school's auditorium (called the Loft Stage). To get there you enter through the Activities Entrance, go straight ahead, until you come to the few stairs on the left that lead you up to the auditorium entrance.

The Black Box Theater is directly behind the auditorium, and has its own entrance. The entrance and the theater are actually between the Main Entrance and the Activities Entrance, on the east side of the building.
